

Get More

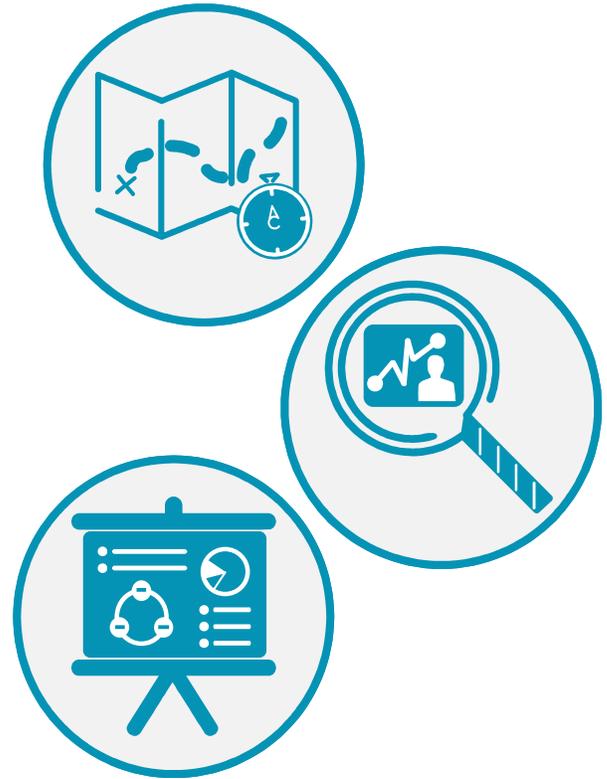

From Your Data & Analytics

Few companies are satisfied with the value they are getting from their data. The Data Divide continues to grow, separating the few top players from their competition. Crossing the divide will require you to transform your thinking. You will need different timelines, cost structures, and strategies. You can get more -

- In weeks not months or years
- For thousands not millions
- By investing in your people not other people's technology

Corsair's can show you the way. Our innovative solutions produce real results. With just a small investment of time and resources, our techniques change corporate cultures, drive employee satisfaction, and raise the skill levels of your entire organization.

Map • Assess • Train

“ Corsair's is a team of problem solvers. They dig in and get to the essence of complex issues quickly. After jumping in and helping to define a solution, they focus on knowledge transfer thereby making your team stronger by being better trained. They are humble experts that want to solve problems and make your company stronger. ” LARRY FIORINO; FOUNDER G1440

MAPPING

We survey your business and create a customized map of assets, goals, and gaps to understand what is most important, model the business, customer, product, and P&L. This is not just about data—it is about decision-making, accountability, and learning.

ASSESSMENT

We develop tailored testing to measure the knowledge of your teams. We make certain to assess them for the skills that are most important for your company and its success. Relevant testing is critical for both planning and educating your organization.

KNOWLEDGE

Our process draws upon decades of industry experience at some of the nation's largest companies and start-ups. We have been doing this a long time. Those we have mentored in the past are now leading analytics organizations of their own. We build success.

EMPOWERMENT

Through transparency, organization, and feedback we can help you engineer the right level of accountability into your organization. The process is empowering and transformative. We provide the skills you need to grow. We will raise your game!

“ This is not about the toys. It is about the players. ” GEORGE EARL; CX & FOUNDER
